

Incident Complexity Analysis
Form

2009 Version - Mobe Plan

Incident Name: _____ Date: _____ Size: _____

Completed By: _____ Title: _____

To be completed by the Incident Commander on a developing incident. The intent of this tool is to be used to evaluate the need of some level of a management team and further incident documentation.

Condition		Yes	No
I	There is a need to develop Divisions, Groups or Section assignments?
II	There is a need to develop a written plan (ICS-201 or equivalent to change from verbal to written decision making process?
III	There currently exist outstanding tasks and assignments relative to life safety, environmental risks or property protected?
IV	There exists a threat to a subdivision, rural community, or critical infrastructure?
V	Current and/or forecasted weather are impacting the incident?
VI	The incident is developing and no risk management plan has been completed and incorporated into a safety plan?
VII	The incident has outstanding needs on critical issues? (personnel, resource request)
VIII	The incident potential forecast indicates an event over 72 hours before stabilization or mitigation?
IX	Inadequate personnel in supervisory roles to ensure implementation of safety plan?
X	Inadequate command staff to document incident necessary to meet local, state or federal guidelines?
Score

Legend
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 1 - 5 or more Yes boxes checked – A Type 3 Team should be used to handle incident • 5 or more Yes boxes checked – A Type 2 Team should be considered to handle incident • If this is a valid target relative to a terrorist event or natural disaster you may immediately order a Type 2 Team.

FAX this document along with the Request for Mobilization Form to the State Emergency Management Division's State Emergency Operations Officer at (253) 512-7203

Call 1-800-258-5990 for the State Emergency Operations Officer to verify receipt.

AFTER FAXING
THE INCIDENT COMPLEXITY
ANALYSIS AND REQUEST
FOR MOBILIZATION FORM

CALL THE
EMD DUTY OFFICER
1-800-258-5990
TO INSURE THEY HAVE RECEIVED IT